

HOUSING AND COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

PROGRAM:

 Consumer Protection^a
PROGRAM ELEMENT:
PROGRAM MISSION:

To investigate and attempt to resolve consumer complaints concerning home sales, improvements, and mortgages; automobile sales and repairs; and other merchants and service providers in a manner that is both timely and fair

COMMUNITY OUTCOMES SUPPORTED:

- Maintain a marketplace that is fair to all parties, including consumers, merchants, landlords, tenants, homeowners, and their governing boards
- Foster respect for the law
- Provide responsive government
- Promote a positive business climate

Notes:

^aThrough the end of FY05, the Child Safety Seat portion of the Consumer Protection program - and the associated resources - were reported in a separate display. Starting in FY06, the Child Safety Seat program has been transferred to the Fire and Rescue Service, so the FY06 expenditures and workyears reported here reflect the entire Consumer Protection program.

^bDisclosures are responses to calls from consumers asking if there have been any complaints about a given merchant.

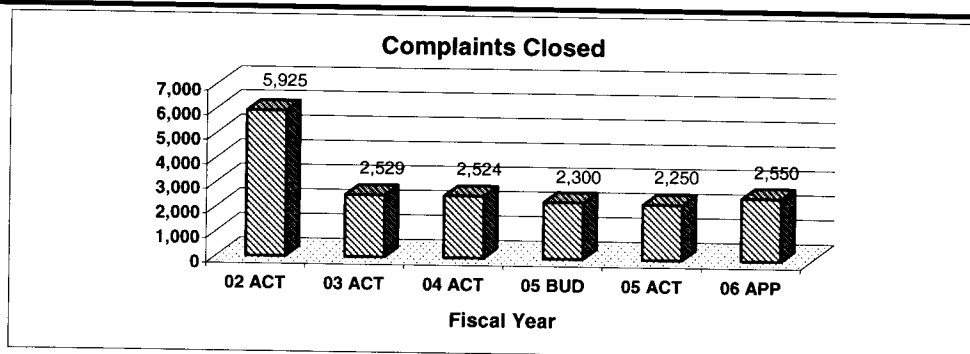

^cService units equal complaints plus requests for information plus disclosures.

^dExcludes large class type settlements, which could inflate and distort the number of cases.

^eThe sharp drop in cases and total service units resulted from the transfer of the Cable Television Office from the Department of Housing and Community Affairs to the Department of Technology Services.

EXPLANATION:

The Division of Consumer Affairs within the Department of Housing and Community Affairs ensures that a fair and competitive marketplace is maintained within Montgomery County so that consumers are protected from unfair and deceptive business practices, and responsible businesses are allowed to operate free from unfair competition.

PROGRAM PARTNERS IN SUPPORT OF OUTCOMES: County Attorney, District Court, Maryland Attorney General's Office, Federal Trade Commission, Better Business Bureau, U.S. Postal Inspection Service.

MAJOR RELATED PLANS AND GUIDELINES: Maryland Annotated Code, Montgomery County Code, Federal laws and regulations.

Notes:

^aThese figures were estimated by extrapolating the results for Department of Housing and Community Affairs inspectors to staff from other departments that are performing child safety seat inspections.

^bBased on a survey provided to all clients.

^cSeats are also inspected by other government staff (Fire and Rescue Service, Police), private automotive dealerships, etc.

^dIncludes phone calls, presentations, child-birth classes, and consultations.

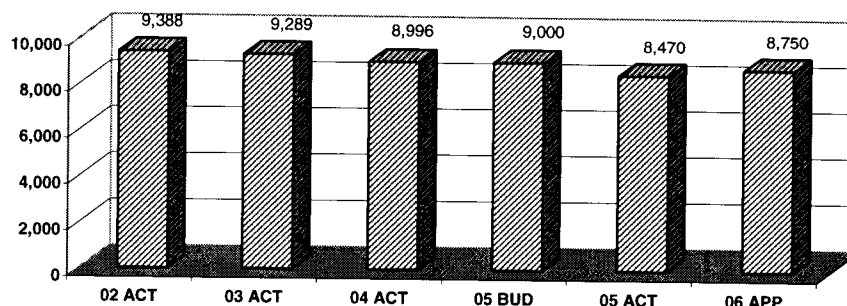

^eSome FY02 and FY03 outcome, efficiency, and workload measures have been corrected using improved information.

^fFor FY06, this program will be transferred to the Montgomery County Fire and Rescue Service. The FY06 targets may be revised by the Fire and Rescue Service after the transfer is completed.

EXPLANATION:

The Division of Consumer Protection within the Department of Housing and Community Affairs has been inspecting the installation of child safety seats for many years. However, in FY00 a separate and distinct program was established. In FY01, four additional workyears were dedicated to expansion of training and inspection for child safety seat installation and use. In FY06, this program will be transferred to the Fire and Rescue Service.

^bExpenditures and workyears include relevant program costs and staff charged to the General Fund within the Department of Housing and Community Affairs and to the Solid Waste Fund within the Department of Public Works and Transportation.

EXPLANATION:

The Division of Housing and Code Enforcement in the Department of Housing and Community Affairs is responsible for ensuring that the housing stock and communities throughout the County are maintained in a safe and sanitary manner. The importance of maintaining our communities and housing stock in accordance with such a standard cannot be overstated. As the County's housing stock and communities continue to age, the importance of effective and consistent code enforcement becomes even more critical.

Single family homeowners not financially capable of bringing their homes up to code are eligible to receive low interest loans funded by the Federal Community Development Block Grant to rehabilitate their houses.
